Watkins would join him in the death notification, Investigator Rolla advised security officials at Fairfax Hospital of USPP approval for Mr. Kennedy and, he believes, a Mr. Craig Livingston to identify the decedent's body at Fairfax Hospital.

Investigator Rolla advised that after the above noted notifications were made, both he and Investigator Braun picked up Mr. David Watkins at his residence in the Georgetown section of Washington, D.C. and with Mrs. Watkins following them in her personal vehicle, proceeded to the Foster residence at :

Due to the number of people in the Foster residence at this time, Rolla advised that it was extremely difficult to pose any questions relative to Mr. Foster's death. However, he does recall eventually conversing with Mrs. Foster specifically asking her if she had any indication that anything was wrong with her husband, with Mrs. Foster responding in the negative.

Lisa Foster's response was negative.

Rolla advised that he did not have any further discussion with Mrs. Foster or for that matter any other family/business associates and estimates that after he and Braun were at the residence for approximately 45 minutes, President Bill Clinton in the company of a Secret Service agent, arrived at the Foster residence. President Clinton to the best of Rolla's memory hugged Mrs. Foster and expressed his sorrow over the death of her husband. Shortly after the arrival of President Clinton, both he and Braun departed the residence.

Rolla further advised that as a follow-up to this investigation he and Investigator Apt on July 22, 1993, telephonically contacted the three medical doctors whose names were listed on a piece of paper found in Mr. Foster's vehicle on July 20. According to Rolla, all three physicians were psychiatrists and all three denied having any prior contact with Vincent Foster.

In a further effort to determine the cause and the factors surrounding Mr. Foster's death, Investigator Rolla advised that on July 27, 1993, he and Captain Charles Hume, USPP, interviewed Mr. Foster's brother-in-law, Mr. Beryl Anthony. According to Rolla, Mr. Anthony advised that it was his opinion that Mr. Foster was extremely depressed and believed that his wife, Sheila Anthony had furnished to Vincent Foster a list of three counselors/psychiatrists or other doctors who practice psychological counseling.

in conversation with Detective Markland, USPP, that Markland apparently had been advised by an unknown White House secretary that Mrs. Foster and one of Vincent Foster's sons had been
